sage of the New Salary Bill.

President J. M. Parsons, Secretary Sharles P. Kelly and James McVey, carrier for the Registry Department, will leave for Washington this evening to ap-pear as the representatives of the New York Letter-Carriers' Association before

The bill provides for an increase of salary of letter-carriers from $1,000 to $1,200 a year in all cities in which the postal revenue exceeds $50,000 a year. The Letter-tarriers Association of each city affected will be represented before the Committee. The bill was presented by Congressman Amos Cummings, of this city.

The carriers urge that their work requires as much brain and skill as that of the machinist, bricklayer or the carpenter. These artisans earn $3.50 to $4.50 a day, and the carriers think they are entitled to as much.

Congressman Cummings and Dunphy are making a special fight for the bill, and, as it has been favored by the press of all the cities affected, it is believed that it will pass this time and receive Mr. Cleveland's prompt indersement.

The new play that Sardou is writing will be acquired by Miss Fanny Davenport for America in a very unusual way, she will pay several thousand dollars to the eminent playwright before she has even seen the scenario of the piece. At present she has absolutely mo idea what the play will be about, although it is to be the great feature of her coming season. Yet the speculation is a safe one. A Sardou play rarely fails. This particular play will be produced almost simultaneously by Bernhardt in France and Davenport in America. Neither of the actresses in worrying herself very much about it.

We had trouble enough getting the court dresses worn in 'Aristocracy,' said Charles Frohman yesterday, 'but in 'Utopia' ail the chorus girls wear them. They are almost thrown at you.' The presentation gowns worn in the Gilbert and Sullivan opera will set many foolish feminine hearts fluttering. In 'Aristocracy' they were considered a great feature, and in 'The Guardsman. presented last April at the Lyceum, Miss Maude Harrison wore one of them with much effect.

The members of D'Oyly Carte's company look upon Gilbert's text as a veritable classic. Herman Vezin, the well-known English actor, has made a brilliant suggestion to the effect that encores and recalls be forbidden by the County Council. He looks upon the encore as a most pernicious custom, but if he yants to see its full abuse he should come to New York. Here the encores on a first night have become one of the most intolerable nuisances. They have lost their original significance, and are simply prompted by a belief that the public will be guilled into believing that they are spontaneous outbursts. The spontaneous outbursts. confident of its success that he said to a friend: "Ilitely you what I'll do. Before the first performance, I'll write a criticism of the play, and seal it up. Then, when the papers come out Tuesday morning, I'll bet you that they will speak more glowingly of the performance than I do although I am convinced of its success." The criticism was written and sealed. The play was produced. In the Tuesday papers it was ronsted to cinders, and knocked into fits. Slowly and sadly the manager opened his own criticism and tearfully he showed it to his friend. "The actors interpolated speeches," said he, "and things went wrong. Otherwise it would have been as I said." M'yes.

Mrs. D. P. Bowers has written an interesting article on Edwin Booth in The Californian Illustrated Magazine. She gives her own experience as a member of his company, and although she tells little that is new she is always entertaining. "I never met any one in my profession," writes Mrs. Bowers, "so generous to his brother and sister artists in the matter of dramatic points as he. Mr. Booth was ever eager to see those with whom he was thrown have every opportunity to succeed, and a round of applause or a call before the curtain for another always seemed to be d source of genuine pleasure to him. He was entirely unselfish."

They want a real baby instead of a painted one, "And why not?" declared one of Mr. Palmer's agents, "Why not? A real baby wouldn't keep quiet, you think. We have no objection to having it cry, The audience would like it. It would be an additional touch of realism. The painted baby is far too tame."

Miss Lillian Russell returned to the Casino last night with a very handsome revival of "Girofle-Girofla," in which she was recently seen at the Garden Theatre. Fred J. Titus, the well-known bicyclist of this city, is in Bermuda, from which place he has written the following interesting letter to a friend here:

in Bermuda what the great Springfield, Mass., meet is to us. It was a gala day. Bermuda being an English colony, the people therefore looked forward to the 18th as a day in which an American would 'get his licks,' as they say. I had Unnecessary. issued a challenge to the fastest rider in Bermuda to race one mile, offering to give the man forty yards start. A match A series of other races were to be held on the same day, viz.: Boys' race, slow race, local race and general handicap, all

The Yale, Princeton and Pennsylvania baseball nines are getting some good practice during the Easter holidays, but Harvard is apparently doing nothing, at least nothing is heard from the crimson team. Judging from exhibition games, the teams of the first three named colleges are stronger than usual, and are rather evenly matched. Princeton, if anything, has had a shade the best of it in games played. The Tigers, as a rule, show up well in practice games, and then have a habit of falling down when the real test comes, Perhaps, however, the success of the football team will be repeated. The Princetons will play here next Saturday with the New Yorks. The Pennsylvania team is not journeying about the country, but is getting more valuable practice than either of the other two by playing with the Philadelphia professionals.

A prominent Minnesota jurist in an in-A prominent Minnesota jurist in an interview last night expressed his views on the question of prize-fights as follows: "Certain deluded sports of St. Paul, with a few dollars in their pockets and several thousands in their minds, have announced that they are willing to make up a purse of $45,000 for the Corbett-Jackson fight. In spite of this, there will be no prize-fight in South St. Paul or any other part of Minnesota. There is no loophole in the law passed by the last Legislature, and if any attempt is made to bring off a contest at South St. Paul, Gov. Wilson will simply swamp the place with the State militia. Any attempt to pull off a fight between Corbett and Jackson anywhere in this State will certainly meet the fate of the Hall-Fitz-simmons affair July 21, 1891."
